

What can I do with a major in...?

Accounting

Associate in Arts

School of Business, Education & Professional Studies

The A.A. in Accounting can be a springboard for any of the following careers:

Brokerage clerks

Payroll and timekeeping clerks

Bookkeeping, accounting, and auditing clerks

Billing clerks

Correspondence clerks

Order clerks

Billing machine operators

Advertising clerks

Statement clerks

Library assistants and bookmobile drivers

File Clerks

Some of the above careers can be obtained with on the job training and / or some college preparation.

Accounting

Most accountant and internal auditor positions require at least a bachelor's degree in accounting or a related field. Professional recognition through certification or licensure provides a distinct advantage in the job market.

Related accounting positions include the following:

Actuary	Commodities Trader
Entrepreneur	Treasurer
Loan Officer	Systems Analyst
Auditor	Assistant Controller
Estate Planner	Payroll Manager
FBI Agent	Securities Broker
Controller	Computer Programmer
CIA Agent	Loan Administrator
Financial Analyst	Trust Accountant
Bank Examiner	Cost Accountant
Underwriter	Industrial Accountant
Tax Lawyer	Managerial Accountant
Industrial Buyer	Benefits Administrator
Tax Specialist	Mgmt. Consultant
Professor	Chief Financial Officer
Internal Auditor	International Trade Specialist
Collection Agent	Certified Public Acct.
Claims Adjuster	Treasury Mgmt. Spec.
IRS Investigator	Inventory Control Specialist
Commercial Banker	Personal Financial Planner
Plant Accountant	Budgetary Control Analyst
Consumer Credit Officer	Methods / Procedures Specialist
Public Accountant	Chief Cost Accountant
Stockbroker	Credit and Collection Specialist

What skills do I need for...?

Accounting

- Organization
- Problem solving
- Critical thinking
- Systemization
- Efficiency
- High standards of integrity/honesty
- Numerical computation
- Oral and written communication
- Computer literacy
- Data analysis and interpretation
- Logical thinking
- Ability to work independently and in teams

Who do I contact at SFCC?
School of Business, Education & Professional Studies
Call: 428-1308

Websites for career information:
www.careerclusters.org/16clusters.cfm
<http://online.onetcenter.org/find/>

