

What can I do with a major in...?

Biological Sciences

Associate in Science
School of Health & Sciences

The degree in Biological Sciences is intended to transfer to a university.

Majoring in Biology leads to careers in life sciences or medicine. Many of these careers require a bachelor's degree; some require graduate work (master's or Ph.D.)

Agricultural Scientist

Coroner

Agronomist

Dentist

Animal Scientist

Dietitian & Nutritionist

Bio-Engineer

Environmental Engineer

Bio-Technologist

Environmental Health Specialist

Botanist

Conservation Ecologist

Chiropractor

Biological Sciences

Related biological science positions include the following:

Food Scientist

Market Research Analyst

Forester

Veterinarian

Genetic Engineering Research

Paramedic

Science Teacher

Pharmacy Technician

Molecular Biologist

Medical Illustrator

Mortician

Wildlife Biologist

Horticulturist

Physical Therapist

Technical Writer

Physician

Mycologist

Medical Laboratory Technician

Neurobiologist

Zoologist

Hospital Administrator

Medical Librarian

Toxicologist

Microbiologist

What skills will I gain from...? Biological Sciences

- Operation of scientific equipment
- Ability to work independently and in a team
- Handling and organization of information
- Curiosity and creativity
- Scientific theory and practical knowledge
- Statistical understanding
- Oral and written communication
- Numerical computation
- Analytical and quantitative abilities
- Using talents innovatively
- Problem solving
- Technical skills
- Critical thinking
- Research and experimentation skills

Who do I contact at SFCC?

School of Health & Sciences

Call: 428-1183

Websites for career information:

www.careerclusters.org/16clusters.cfm

<http://online.onetcenter.org/find/>

