

What can I do with a major in...? Spanish Language

Associate in Arts
School of Liberal Arts & Core Studies

We recommend that whatever your academic area of study is, you supplement it with a Spanish language degree as this will afford an abundance of career opportunities.

Related career titles for Spanish Language majors:

Arts/Media, Entertainment

Advertising Manager
Advertising Copywriter
Archivist
Art Dealer
Auditor
Editor
Filmmaker
Journalist
Media Specialist
Museum Curator
Musician
Performer/Video Artist
Radio/TV Announcer
Reporter
Publishing Specialist
Sports Agent
Telecommunications
Salesperson

This degree is intended to transfer to a University.

Spanish Language

Industry and Commerce

Auditor
Banking Correspondent
Bookkeeper/Accountant
Commercial Loan Officer
Finance Director
Financial Planning Associate
Importer/Exporter
International Account Manager
International Banking Officer
International Conference Planner
International Consultant
International Trade Economist
Investment Analyst
Overseas Plan Manager
Salesperson
Travel Agent Personnel

Service and Education

Bilingual Educator
Educator
Emergency Services
Health Care Personnel
Human Resources Dir.
Human Serv. Personnel
Interpreter/Guide
Linguist
Proofreader
Peace Corps Volunteer
Police Officer
Professor
Social Worker
Teacher
Teacher Assistant
TESOL/ESL Teacher
Translator

U.S. Government

Civil Service Employee
Court Reporter
Court Interpreter
FBI Agent
Foreign Diplomat
Foreign Exchange Trader
Foreign Service Officer/Peacekeeper
Foreign Social Worker
Intelligence Specialist
National Security Agent
Negotiator
Paralegal
Politician

And others...

Air Traffic Control Specialist
Dental Hygienist
Emergency Medical Technician
International Hotel Administrator
Lab Technician
Lawyer
Nurse
Quality Control Supervisor
Pharmaceutical Rep.
Pharmacist
Scientific Translator
Travel Writer
Writer

What skills will I gain from...?

Spanish Language

- Speaking to groups
- Reading critically
- Understanding historical language change
- Communicating between cultures
- Comparing translation interpretations
- Adapting to other cultures
- Listening carefully
- Acknowledging value systems
- Clarifying ideas
- Working with research subjects
- Summarizing ideas
- Evaluating evidence
- Interviewing non-judgmentally
- Establishing hypothesis
- Writing clearly
- Analyzing and interpreting data

Who do I contact at SFCC?
School of Liberal Arts & Core Studies
Call: 428-1370

Websites for career information:
www.careerclusters.org/16clusters.cfm
<http://online.onetcenter.org/find/>

