SFCC Public Lecture Features Award-Winning Photographer

Santa Fe, NM, Sept. 24, 2009 —Award-winning landscape photographer and Guggenheim fellow Michael Berman presents and discusses his work during a public lecture, noon to 1:30 p.m., Oct. 1, inside Jemez Rooms 2 and 3, on the SFCC campus, 6401 Richards Ave., Santa Fe. Berman will discuss “Grasslands,” a photographic series about the Chihuahuan Desert grasslands of New Mexico, Texas and the northern border of Mexico. Berman has spent nearly 30 years photographing the arid border regions of the American Southwest. A resident of New Mexico, he is fascinated by the land and how people use and value it. “I believe art has a greater potential for meaning when it serves some purpose,” said Berman. “People have started to recognize these lands as significant and this is something art can help along.” The event is free and open to the public. For more information, call 428-1702.
