GROW SFCC Foundation Offers Creative Writing Scholarship

Santa Fe, NM — GROW Santa Fe Community College Foundation has announced The Richard Bradford Creative Writing Scholarship, honoring the memory of Richard Bradford, a famed New Mexico author whose books include the Western classics “Red Sky at Morning” and “So Far From Heaven,” both set in New Mexico.

Each semester, the scholarship program provides $500 to a talented, aspiring writer enrolled in SFCC’s Creative Writing Program. Funds were donated by crime and suspense author Michael McGarrity and local arts advocate Charmay Allred through the GROW SFCC Foundation. Students interested in applying should contact SFCC’s financial aid office at (505) 428-1268.
