Advanced Film Program Deadline Nears

Santa Fe, NM, April 8, 2010 – Santa Fe Community College’s Film Program is now accepting applications for its Advanced Filmmaking Program, a year-long intensive that guides and assists emerging filmmakers in completing their films. Under the direction of mentors and instructors, students are given access to the college’s many filmmaking resources, including a cadre of skilled instructors and mentors, professional partnerships, soundstages, crew, insurance and filming and production equipment. The application deadline is May 10, 2010. Applications and program information are available at www.sfcc.edu/programs/film. The program begins in the fall.
