SFCC Performing Arts Spring Showcase Highlights Local Talent

Santa Fe, NM, May 3, 2010 — More than 100 Santa Fe Community College students and faculty members in dance and theater hit the stage at this year's "Performing Arts Spring Showcase." The event takes place at 7 p.m. on May 10, inside El Museo Cultural de Santa Fe, 555 Camino de la Familia, in the Santa Fe Railyard district. The event is open to the public and admission is free.

The 90-minute showcase features performances by students who are currently enrolled in performing arts classes in the college's School of Arts and Design. This year's program includes performances in belly dance, hip-hop, ballet, modern, swing, salsa and flamenco. Acting performances include scenes from famous stage plays "As Is," "Life During Wartime," and "Spike Heels."

In addition to dance, theater and music, SFCC's School of Arts and Design offers a variety of degrees, certificates and courses in fine arts and design, including sculpture, photography, photography, interior design, fashion design, jewelry, fine woodworking, printmaking, book arts and ceramics.
