SFCC Performing Arts Winter Showcase Highlights Local Talent

Santa Fe, NM, Nov. 3, 2010 — Santa Fe Community College students and faculty members in dance and theater hit the stage at this year's "Performing Arts Winter Showcase." The event takes place at 7 p.m. on Monday, Nov. 29, at El Museo Cultural de Santa Fe, 1615 Paseo de Peralta. The event is open to the public and admission is free.

The 90-minute showcase features performances by students currently enrolled in performing arts classes in the college's School of Arts and Design. This year's program includes performances from acting, belly dance, hip-hop, ballet, modern dance and flamenco classes.

In addition to courses in performing arts, SFCC's School of Arts and Design offers a variety of degrees, certificates and classes in fine arts and design, including sculpture, photography, photography, interior design, fashion design, jewelry, fine woodworking, printmaking, book arts and ceramics. For more information, call (505) 428-1731 or visit www.sfcc.edu.
