Honor Society Holds Regional Convention at SFCC

Santa Fe, NM, March 2, 2011 — Santa Fe Community College hosts Phi Theta Kappa's New Mexico Spring Regional Convention from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 5, on the SFCC campus, 6401 Richards Ave. Phi Theta Kappa recognizes and encourages the academic achievement of two-year college students and provides opportunities for individual growth and development through participation in honors, leadership, service and fellowship programming. The convention brings together New Mexico's 19 Phi Theta Kappa chapters for the election of new regional officers, an awards ceremony honoring members and informational break-out sessions. For more information, contact Jane Abbott at (505) 428-1834.
