Calendar Announcement:

Santa Fe Community College holds its annual Spring Choral Concert on Saturday, May 9 at 3 p.m., inside the Jemez Rooms, 6401 Richards Ave. The evening features performances by SFCC chorus and chamber students and is the result of a semester's worth of class work and choral rehearsals. The event is free and open to the public. The program includes "Everything's Coming up Roses," a song from the 1959 Broadway musical "Gypsy: A Musical Fable" and also includes an assortment of vocal pieces ranging from American folk songs and standards to classical and international folk music. For more information, call (505) 428-1731.

Spring Choral Concert at SFCC Showcases Local Vocal Talent

Santa Fe, NM, May 1, 2009 – Witness the pleasant sounds of Santa Fe Community College at this year's Spring Choral Concert. The event takes place at 3 p.m. on Saturday, May 9, inside the Jemez Rooms at Santa Fe Community College, 6401 Richards Ave.

The evening features performances by SFCC chorus and chamber students and is the result of a semester's worth of class work and choral rehearsals. The choral program is part of SFCC's School of Arts and Design.

The program includes "Everything's Coming up Roses," a song from the 1959 Broadway musical "Gypsy: A Musical Fable" and also includes an assortment of vocal pieces ranging from American folk songs and standards to classical and international folk music.

The chorus will be accompanied by pianists Virginia Westray and William Epstein and directed by lifelong music educator and SFCC instructor Dr. Priscilla Zimmermann. "Santa Fe Community College's choral program is designed to offer an educational experience with music of various styles and historical periods," said Zimmerman. "We invite anyone who is eager to sing music of diverse styles, willing to commit to regular rehearsal attendance, and inspired to improve the quality of the group and their own singing, to join chorus for the 2009 fall semester."

The concert is free and open to the public. To learn more, please call (505) 428-1731.
