The Indiana Jones Adventure

Thus, the story begins . . .

"Your team is a group of distinguished American archaeologists who are flying to Cairo, Egypt in search of the famed "Golden Eggs". These eggs are v-e-r-y delicate and easily broken. They possess incredible powers of healing and rejuvenation to anyone who touched them. Your plane's engines have malfunctioned and you are forced to parachute into the barren wasteland of the Egyptian desert. It is a dark, moon less night, making it impossible for you to find food and water. But The Blind Obstacle Course will lead you to these provisions."

The Blind Obstacle Course is the first of 4 events that are joined together by a common story. Each activity leads to the next one.
