

TEAMWORK IN ACTION

Rock Climbing

Rock climbing for all levels • Single and multi-day expeditions • Retreats • Corporate groups • School groups • Birthday parties

Program Times

Monday through Sunday • 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Minimum program length is four hours.

Reservations

Call (505) 428-1637 between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.
Monday through Friday to make reservations.

- Please be prepared to specify your desired time and date.
- Programs and challenge course events are scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis, so please have two alternate dates and times in mind when you call.
- All reservations are tentative until the Teamwork in Action Program receives a signed service agreement and $75 reservation fee by return mail. There is no guarantee that the climbing site you choose will be available. If this occurs, Teamwork in Action will make every attempt to find another climbing site in the area.

Fees

The program fee is $15 per hour per person for a group of eight participants. (Smaller groups may be accommodated by special arrangement.) Discounts are available for groups of 30 or more. A reservation fee of $75 must be submitted with the signed service agreement. This fee will be credited against the program fee and is refundable if your group cancels at least 48 hours in advance. Unforeseen circumstances may be taken into consideration.

Paperwork

Each participant must complete a release form prior to participating in the program. NO participant will be allowed to climb without a signed and completed form. Teamwork in Action must receive all forms at least seven days before the program date.

Chaperones

For children and teen programs, a minimum of one adult chaperone is required for every 8 students.

Conduct

Teachers and chaperones are responsible for their students' conduct while at the climbing site. The Teamwork in Action facilitators reserve the right to modify events or cancel programs if at any time they believe the program has become unsafe. No fee will be refunded under these circumstances.

Lunch

Groups are responsible for bringing their own lunch. The Teamwork in Action facilitators will supply water.

Weather and Clothing

Participants should wear clothing appropriate for rock climbing in weather that may change in the course of the day. Sandals are not appropriate footwear under any circumstances. Delays or cancellations due to weather conditions must be made in concert with the Teamwork in Action Program Director at (505) 428-1637.

Climbing Sites

THE “Y”

Near the eastern edge of the Pajarito Plateau, the Y’s 60-foot cliffs offer more than 30 top rope and lead routes. This roadside crag has a creek that flows year round, except during the hot summer months. The area has superb crack climbing on both sides of the canyon walls. Routes here range from 5.5 to 5.13 in difficulty.

THE OVERLOOK

Located in White Rock, the Overlook is a 65-foot basalt cliff with more than 65 sport and traditional routes. It is a popular place for sport climbing and top roping, with a view of the Rio Grande Gorge. Routes range from 5.7 to 5.12 in difficulty.

GALLOWS EDGE

Located in White Rock, Gallow’s Edge features moderate sport and traditional routes, and fun moderate bouldering. Routes here range from 5.4 to 5.9 in difficulty with one 5.12.

POTRILLO CLIFFS

Located in White Rock, Potrillo Cliffs has plenty of beginner climbs and an easy half-mile walk to the area. These basalt cliffs are 200 feet long and 45 feet high. Here you can enjoy great views of Potrillo Canyon, the Rio Grande Gorge, and Bandelier National Monument. Routes here range from 5.4 to 5.10 in difficulty.

LAS CONCHAS

Cool mountain air, the Jemez River, great climbing and beautiful views make Las Conchas a popular climbing area. The area’s cliffs are located at 8,400 feet and are composed of volcanic rock spewed millions of years ago with the eruption of the Jemez Caldera. The routes here are mostly bolted climbs ranging from 30 to 60 feet in height and 5.5 to 5.13 in difficulty.
